Following town council meeting Monday night

New Brockton employees get pay increase

The New Brockton Town Council voted Monday night, Nov. 7, to give all employees a cost-of-living increase in the amount of $2 per hour.

Mayor Kathy Holley said she was recommending the cost-of-living increase for the employees. She said it had been budgeted for two years, but the employees had gone those two years with no cost-of-living increase.

Council member Ronald Terry made a motion to approve the $2 per hour increase for employees, and he received a second from council member Shirley Eads. The motions passed by unanimous vote.

Following that vote, the mayor said the town had always provided employees with a one-time pay increase each year at Christmas-time. She said it had been $100 for full-time employees and $50 for part-time employees.

Holley said she would like for the council to approve this one-time pay increase again this year, and during the November meeting, so the employees would receive it with their first paycheck in December.

Council member Ralph Medley made the motion to approve the one-time pay increase, and the motion received a second from Terry. It passed by unanimous vote.

Police Chief Dale Grimes was at the meeting, and he thanked the town council for these votes, saying, "thank you all so much for what you do for us."

The mayor made several holiday-related announcements during the meeting. She noted that town hall offices would be closed Friday, Nov. 11, for Veteran's Day, and again Thursday, Nov. 24, and Friday, Nov. 25, for the Thanksgiving holiday.

The next work session for the council will be Monday, Nov. 21, at 6 p.m.

The New Brockton Christmas Parade is set for Saturday, Dec. 3, at 11 a.m.

The next town council meeting will be Monday, Dec. 5, at 6 p.m.

I VOTED... General Election Nov. 8, 2022

Voters took to the polls Tuesday, Nov. 8, for the 2022 General Election, and poll officials at the Elba Church of Christ in Elba reported a 'good day' for their location. The officials said there had been a steady coming and going of voters throughout the day with no major hiccups causing any issues for the location. Poll official Mac Moore (pictured above) might have been the most popular official for the day as he got the duty of passing out the "I Voted" stickers once ballots were placed in the voting machine. Polls did not close until 7 p.m. Tuesday evening; therefore, election results were still being determined as of press time this week for The Elba Clipper.

Flu activity unusually severe in Alabama among children

Pediatric leaders across the state of Alabama are warning families about unusually high and severe influenza activity throughout the state, especially in children. "This is the highest flu activity that we have seen this early in the season since the 2009 Influenza A/H1N1 pandemic," reported Wes Stubblefield, MD, MPH, FAAP, pediatrician and District Medical Officer with the Alabama Department of Public Health. Outpatient pediatric offices, already short-staffed coming out of the pandemic and facing daily medication shortages, are bearing the brunt of this outbreak.

"Outpatient visits for influenza increased over 10-fold between September and October, and have shown no signs of slowing in the first five days of November," said Nola Ernest, MD, PhD, EAAP, outpatient pediatrician in Enterprise, Ala. and president of the Alabama Chapter of the American Academy of Pediatrics. "The highest number of outpatient visits for influenza-like illness are in young people, ages 5-24." At USA Health Children's & Women's Hospital in Mobile, positive influenza cases have risen from 51 in September to 745 in October and 138 in just the first three days of November. This swift spread of flu is also resulting in a rapid increase in hospitalizations among children. At USA Health, there are more children hospitalized for influenza than for Respiratory Syncytial Virus infection, or RSV. Children's of Alabama in Birmingham has seen a similar increase.

"In the last few weeks, Children's of Alabama has seen a surge of admissions with children who are critically ill from influenza and associated complications," said Michele Kong, MD, Professor of Pediatrics and director of the Pediatric Critical Care Research Program at Children's. "These have included those patients who have required ventilation and some so severe that ECMO (heart-lung-bypass) support was needed. We urge families to take the flu virus seriously and to ensure that their children and adolescents are protected." While typically self-limited, influenza can result in severe complications in persons of any age but is especially severe in young children. Hospitalization can result from dehydration and difficulty breathing, but also from myocarditis (inflammation of the heart muscle), respiratory failure, and encephalitis (inflammation of the brain). An average of 150 children across the United States die of influenza each year. However, in 2009, the last time early influenza activity was this severe, pediatric deaths reached 282. Last Thursday, the CDC announced the first influenza-related pediatric death of the season. However, pediatricians warn that this data is often delayed by several weeks and may be an underestimate of how many influenza-related deaths are occurring.

Hall of Fame coach speaks to Elba QB Club

Alabama Hall of Fame Coach Spence McCracken (shown above) was the guest speaker Friday, Nov. 4, at the Elba Quarterback Club's "game day" lunch meeting. McCracken played his college ball at Auburn University where he was the center for the team. His coaching career began at Decatur High School in Georgia as an assistant coach. He returned to his high school alma mater, Robert E. Lee High School in Montgomery, Ala., in 1974 as an assistant coach. In 1979 he became head football coach at Montgomery Academy. In 1984, McCracken returned to Robert E. Lee as head football coach where his 11 teams all had winning records. His teams in 1986, 1991, and 1992 won state championships. He became the head coach at Opelika High School in 1995 where he has the distinction of being the winningest coach at both Opelika and Lee. While at Opelika, McCracken's team won seven region titles, and he led the Bulldogs to the playoffs in each of his last 11 seasons there. He was inducted into the Alabama High School Athletic Association's Hall of Fame in 2004. McCracken coached Elba City Schools superintendent Chris Moseley at Robert E. Lee during his tenure as the head coach for the Generals.

Elba Schools placed on lock down Wednesday, Nov. 2nd

On Wednesday, Nov. 2, at approximately 8 a.m., Special Agents with the Alabama Law Enforcement Agency's (ALEA) State Bureau of Investigation (SBI) where made aware of an online threat towards Elba City Schools.

The schools were placed on lock down at that time while an investigation on-site began. The suspect associated with the threat was soon thereafter placed in custody of law enforcement, according to Elba Police Chief Troy Staley during a press conference held Wednesday afternoon.

Officers with the Elba Police Department, Deputies with the Coffee County Sheriff's Office and ALEA Troopers and Special Agents were all on scene during last Wednesday's incident.

During the press conference, officials did note an arrest was made relating to a person with a gun, but they said that was unrelated to the original suspected threat. No name was released due to age of the person.

DAR PROVIDES SNACKS FOR VETERANS AT OZARK COLLEGE...Ozark Veterans Appreciation Day was held Monday, Nov. 7, at the Alabama Aviation College in Ozark, a unit of Enterprise State Community College. AAC is the only training facility in southeastern Alabama with the primary educational purpose to provide high-quality, short term certificates, technical certificates and associate degree programs to meet the needs of area students, employers and economic developers. Sarah Marusich, ESCC Financial Aid and Veteran Affairs Coordinator, reached out to the members of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution John Coffee Chapter to see if they would be able to provide "grab and go" snacks for the 100 veterans attending classes at ACC. DAR members Sue Cobb, Elizabeth Vickers, Nell Gilmer, Anne Couturier, Wendy Zeller, Betty Ann Stinson and Regent Jacque Hawkins participated in providing snacks. Shown in photo above (from left) are Sarah Marusich, Betty Ann Stinson and Jacque Hawkins. "Socialism is the philosophy of failure. The creed of ignorance, and the gospel of envy; its inherent virtue is the equal sharing of misery." — Winston Churchill

Sugar in corn bread?? We read an article over the weekend written by a man who had had his first encounter with corn bread/with sugar. Needless to say he was not a happy camper, a reaction with which we agree. Thinking back it is probably good that our mother is not still around. She would have had a heart attack at the thought of contaminating a southern dish like cornbread with S-U-G-E-R! Not in her kitchen.

According to a Monday news release and special press conference from UAB on Tuesday, the state of Alabama has one of the highest rates of flu in the nation! We were in a doctor's office for routine check-up week before last (Thursday) and he noted he had seen more flu cases that week than he had all last year. We got our flu shot before leaving his office. It is not unusual for us to skip the annual flu shot, but considering this was our year for Shingles, Bell's Palsy, two skin cancers, COVID all around us, etc. vaccines have become our daily snack!

We voted early Tuesday morning. Didn't want anything to happen that would cause us to not vote. Of course, before 8:00 a.m. the poll officials were definitely not overworked. There were some races we skipped, as we didn't really know either candidate or worse, didn't like either candidate. The amendments will probably have a lot of people skipping them, but we voted on each one. It is ironic that the first one was designed, among other things, to cut down on the length of the Alabama Constitution, which was (is) the longest one in the world but it was followed with ten (yes 10) new amendments to the long, long (but just slightly shortened) document!

The amendment that was designed to shorten the length of the Constitution also finally officially removes the references to slavery from Alabama's constitution. The state has gotten a good bit of flack over those words, even though they had no legal standing. There are a number of other changes that would have been good for the Alabama Constitution but getting statewide agreement on changes was hard enough on those few items that were modified, or deleted, and much else would probably have raised massive voter objections against "change".

The number of folks buying Powerball tickets for the Monday night drawing swelled above the projected numbers and thus so did the winning amount. We pass on to all our Elba friends who drove to Georgia or Florida for a chance at the two-million-dollar jackpot that those folks in California who won the pot say "Thank You".

Be safe, wear your mask when appropriate, social distance, wash your hands AND get the shot(s) and/or boosters (the newest one)!

Happy Veteran's Day!
Thank you all!

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Friday is Veteran's Day. It is a day the Yonder Gang takes very seriously as Papa is a Vietnam War veteran. Some only refer to it as Vietnam Conflict, but Papa can assure all — it was a war.

Cuzin Lou Lou and Sister always try to do something special for and/or with Papa on Veteran's Day. While the gang honors and thanks our veteran's every day, Nov. 11th pays special tribute them (past and present). The members of the Yonder Gang believe we should all take time each Nov. 11th to say thank you to veterans.

Earlier this week, the gang was enjoying lunch together when Lou Lou announced to Papa that she was planning to take him out for breakfast Friday morning to one of their favorite places — the Waffle House. Lou Lou's office will be closed that day in observance of Veteran's Day, and she decided it would be a perfect time to take Papa to breakfast.

Sister, however, must work that day, and she immediately cut her eyes to Lou Lou, giving her the biggest look of disappointment possible.

Lou Lou just shrugged and said, "So sorry, but you gotta work!"

Oh boy...that did not go over well with Sister. She went into a rant. She cannot stand it the once or twice at most each year when Lou Lou actually gets a 'day off' that Sister does not get due to holiday schedules. Lou Lou on the other hand takes advantage of the opportunity to rub it in a little because most of the time, it is Lou Lou heading out to work on a holiday with Sister staying at home for a relaxing day off.

Not this time!!

Sister will most likely not read this column prior to the Friday morning (Veteran's Day) trip to the Waffle House for Papa and Lou Lou, so, Lou Lou will let her readers in on a little secret...she plans to send Sister a picture or two from the Waffle House of her and Papa enjoying their two eggs scrambled with bacon, toast, and grits!

It is guaranteed that Sister will have some choice words for Lou Lou in response! It's going to be a hoot!!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling! And...please join the Yonder Gang in honoring our Veterans!! Wear the Red, White and Blue proudly!

LASSITER SPEAKS ABOUT DRIP IRRIGATION...

Don Lassiter (center), Advanced Master Gardener and a member of the Wiregrass Master Gardener's Association, recently spoke to the Coffee County Master Gardener's Association about "Drip Irrigation." Planning and design are a must to determine what type of irrigation you are going to need. Some things you need to consider are the water source, automatic timers, filters, pressure regulators, fertilizer injector systems, tubing adapters, leak prevention connectors and adjustable rate emitters. Advantages to drip irrigation are efficient water use, a system you can manage with ease, you can maintain soil moisture, odd shaped areas can be covered and the system is easily modified. Shown in photo from left CCMGA President Ed Speigner, Don Lassiter, and CCMGA Program Chair Maggie Sickler. Wanting to become a Master Gardener? Call the Extension Office (334-894-5596) and get your name on the list for the next Master Gardener Class.

Other organizations assisting with field days include the Alabama Forestry Commission, the Coffee County Cooperative Extension System, the Natural Resources Conservation Service, Alabama Wildlife & Freshwater Fisheries, and the Alabama Heritage Program.

FLU

Unlike many respiratory viruses including RSV, there are very specific actions that families can take to protect children against influenza, chiefly vaccination. Benjamin Estrada, MD, FAAP, pediatric infectious disease specialist at USA Health, urged Alabama families to take steps immediately to prevent influenza infection: "We encourage parents to take the necessary preventative measures to protect their children, themselves and others through strategies that we know are effective, including influenza vaccination for everyone older than six months, hand-washing, and mask-wearing in crowded environments or when someone is sick at home." To find out more about how to get a flu vaccine, contact a pediatrician, family physician, or county health department.

Our Family Serving Your Family Since 1934

National Home Caregivers Month

November is National Family Caregivers Month, a time to honor and celebrate all those who care for their loved ones. We would especially like to take time this month to recognize and honor those who care for their parents. Shopping, cleaning, bathing, arranging doctor visits, transportation and providing ongoing comfort for aging family members is both rewarding and difficult. Thank you so much for your countless hours of providing care.

While caregiving can be a very rewarding job, it can also be stressful and isolating due to the demands on your time.

- 1) Seek support from other caregivers. Talking to others who are going through the same thing you are is beneficial.
- 2) Take care of yourself. While it can be difficult to find time to take care of yourself, it's hard to take care of others if you are not happy and healthy yourself.
- 3) Learn how to effectively communicate with doctors. Take notes and keep them somewhere they are easy to find for visits and phone calls. Make sure to ask questions if you are unsure about what the doctor is saying.
- 4) Take breaks when you can. It can be hard to take a break if it leaves your parent without someone to care for them. However, there are options available for care. Respite care provides short-term care at a care facility or even in the home. Adult daycare is another possible option.
- 5) Make sure legal and medical information is up to date and organized. Keep information in an easy to find spot and check regularly to see if anything needs to be updated.
- 6) Don't be afraid to ask for help. If you start to feel overwhelmed, help is available. Reach out to family and friends or seek help from a professional.
- 7) Continue to learn. Seek out books, support groups or websites that can help you manage your stress and connect with other caregivers.
- 8) Know that you are doing an incredible job and that your work is important. Your caregiving responsibilities are unpaid, but that doesn't mean that you aren't valuable. This is a tough job so make sure to give yourself credit.

With Pride!

(I wrote this in March of 2018 but it still applies today! All of my children are out on their own now and my youngest is a Senior at Troy)

If you've been to an Elba football game you've probably heard the band's dismissal at the end of the games after the Alma Mater. As the drum major ask several questions the band shouts back "with pride" and it echoes through the hole the stadium is in. It always gives me a little chill having been a high school band member at Jess Lanier High School in Bessemer Ala. It also gives me a chill as a band parent to see my children taking pride in what they do.

I have four children all of whom have been in marching bands. My oldest Andrew, was in the Daphne High School marching band. My second son Adam was in both the DHS band and here in Elba and was drum major his senior year. Aaron my third son graduated from Elba last may and is now in the Troy University Sound of The South and my daughter is a junior in the Elba Marching Tiger band.

Needless to say I have been on my share of band trips through the last ten plus years. I have seen my share of disciplinary problems and success stories. I have seen those who were proud to represent their school and city and those who didn't care. I have seen that in both students and parents alike. I have been on good trips and nightmare trips but never have I been more proud than I am today.

The Marching Tiger Band and parents/chaperones were the epitome of "with pride" in The Windy City this weekend. They were complemented in several places as being the best-behaved group. Everyone was always where they were supposed to be and was polite and well mannered. I was amazed at how easily we went from place to place and made transitions during long days without a hitch.

Sowing for Hope

Born to a teenage mother and living in the worst parts of town, basketball superstar LeBron James is grateful for his great fortune. So, he is giving back. Drafted into the NBA right out of high school in 2003, LeBron founded the LeBron James Family Foundation in 2004 to help single parents and their children who are in need. LeBron has also donated $41 million to pay college tuition for 1,100 youth in Ohio. Those who enroll in his "I Promise" program at the University of Akron will be eligible to receive this scholarship. LeBron states that the young people are "the reason I do what I do. These students have big dreams, and I'm happy to do everything I can to help them get there." He notes that many African-American children can only dream of attending college because of the expense. The more LeBron earns, the more he gives to provide hope to many for a better life. He is sowing into lives generously and will reap generously the joy of helping improve lives. It is often said that we get out what we put in. Athletes become superstars by constant practice. Great inventors spend countless hours creating new products. Great chefs suffer many failures on their way to prepare food as no one else does. Sowing involves risk. But so does failure to sow. Jesus' parables about servants entrusted with resources (Matthew 25: 14-30; Luke 19: 11-27). — S.K.

Elba teachers/students participate in Pumpkins on the Square event

by Clayton Parker, Heidi Smith & Emily Mosley

The Elba Chamber of Commerce held its annual "Pumpkins on the Square" fall event on Halloween night.

The festival featured beautifully carved Jack O' Lanterns on the Levee Walk, bounce houses and outdoor scary movies. The evening was full of thrills for those brave enough to take on the Haunted Hayride.

Elba High School students and faculty members took part in Pumpkins on the Square. Both students and faculty helped by passing out candy, helping with the Haunted Hayride and inflatables, and the EHS Show Choir performed as well.

"It was great to see Elba High School students and teachers helping out in the community," said Elba High School sophomore Ja'Siyah Reed. "It made me very proud to be an Elba Tiger."

EHS students and teachers can't wait to help again next year.

Elba's Ty Sieving participates in Heifer and Steer Show at NPF

by Alex Wisecup and Trace Grantham

On Saturday, Nov. 5, Elba High School junior Ty Sieving competed at the National Peanut Festival Heifer and Steer Show.

Ty and his heifer, Charlie, placed 5th in the competition this year. Ty has been preparing for this event since last year's peanut festival Calf Scramble, where he won his prized calf.

"I have been preparing for almost a year now, but this past week I've been really busy getting Charlie ready for the fair," he said. "My grandfather and I made final preparations for the show on Thursday and Friday by giving Charlie a bath, cutting her hair, and getting food and water ready. I couldn't have gotten it all done without the help of my Pop."

Ty is extremely grateful for the experience to represent Elba High School at the show this year.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) has expanded the use of updated (bivalent) COVID-19 vaccines to children ages 5 through 11 years. This follows the Food and Drug Administration's authorization of updated COVID-19 vaccines from Pfizer-BioNTech for children ages 5 through 11 years, and from Moderna for children and adolescents ages 6 through 17 years.

Updated COVID-19 vaccines add Omicron BA.4 and BA.5 spike protein components to the current vaccine composition. The CDC reports that this helps to restore protection that has waned since previous vaccination and targets recent Omicron variants that are more transmissible and immune-evading. Booster doses use reduced amounts of the original vaccines.

Only individuals who have completed their primary vaccination series (two doses of Pfizer, Moderna, or Novavax or one dose of Johnson & Johnson vaccine) are eligible to receive the updated bivalent booster. Previously vaccinated people may receive either the Pfizer or Moderna bivalent booster, regardless of which primary series vaccine or original booster dose they had received before.

The new Omicron-targeting booster will be available at least two months after their last dose, whether that was their primary vaccination series or an earlier booster. The original formulations of Pfizer, Moderna, Johnson & Johnson, and Novavax will continue to be used for the primary series.

With rare exceptions, almost all individuals 6 months and older can receive the COVID-19 vaccines.

Alabama Department of Public Health Medical Officer Dr. Wes Stubblefield said both children and adults are still being hospitalized for COVID-19.

He added, "Parents should consider boosting their child, especially if their child or someone in the family is at high risk or just to prevent them from feeling any side effects from COVID that could keep your child home from school."

Annual influenza vaccine is also recommended for ages 6 months and older, and flu shots can be received at the same visit along with their COVID-19 vaccine. Information about COVID-19 and influenza vaccine providers and clinics can be found at alabamapublichealth.gov. Locations where COVID-19 vaccine is available can be viewed at vaccines.gov/

While Mini Mites win in overtime to close out regular season

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Elba Parks and Recreation youth football teams completed the regular season last Saturday, Nov. 5, in Opp, and all three Elba teams have qualified to compete in this weekend's Super Bowl Championship event for the Pea River Youth Football League. The Super Bowl event will be held in New Brockton.

The Elba Mini Mites (ages 7-8) claimed an exciting 6-0 win over Opp in overtime last Saturday morning. This win gave Elba a 6-1 overall record on the regular season, and it vaulted the Mini Mite Tigers to be the #1 Qualifier in this weekend's Super Bowl event.

Opp finished the regular season also with a 6-1 record and will be the #2 Qualifier in this weekend's Super Bowl. The #3 Qualifier for the Super Bowl will be Daleville with an overall 4-3 record, and the #4 Qualifier will be New Brockton, also with an overall 4-3 record.

For the remaining Mini Mites teams in the league, Goshen finished with an over 4-3 record, Skipperville finished with a 3-4 record, Arton finished with a 1-6 record, and Zion Chapel finished the season 0-7.

In a meeting of undefeated Termites teams (ages 9-10) last Saturday, the Elba Tigers came out on top of the Opp Bobcats with a 24-14 in Opp. At 7-0 on the season, the Elba Termites will be the #1 Qualifier for this weekend's Super Elba Pee Wee player Cole Astemborski (21) makes a big gain for the Tigers in the Oct. 29th win over Zion Chapel. While the Pee Wee team lost to Opp last week-end, the Tigers did qualify for Saturday's Super Bowl.

I remember when we started our family many years ago someone told me that with the first child we would do all our shopping at the mall and buy only the best clothes and outfits available, but when the second one comes we would dress her in leftovers from the first child or pick up things on sale at Walmart. That was true back then and it is still true today, as our youngest daughter Melanie has her young son in clothes with his name or initials monogrammed on every outfit and orders custom designed clothes for his first ballgame attended, his first Halloween, and all the other events that mean so much with your first child. It is certainly okay to be proud parents, because our girls are both in their thirties and we are still proud parents!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers survived an early scare by scoring three unanswered first half touchdowns in a 42-20 playoff win over Southern Choctaw. The Tigers led only 7-6 late in the first quarter and appeared to have a battle on their hands, but used their speed on offense and big plays on defense to take command and advance to the second round. It was good to see the early season 1-2 punch of Alvin Henderson and JT Coleman make a return as the talented duo combined to rush for 355 yards and five touchdowns, while over on defense the Tigers did give up some big plays and missed some tackles, but had 13 tackles for losses and really passed some big hits. It looked like the easy late-season wins over Pleasant Home and McKenzie may have resulted in the team not being ready for the battle that Southern Choctaw brought, but the Tigers did settle in and in the playoffs it is 'survive and advance,' and that is what the Tigers did.

 Brantley made it look easy in a 39-3 win over Choctaw County is what many thought may be a much closer game that many sportswriters predicted. The Bulldogs used the accurate passing arm of Jayden Parks to move the ball almost at will in the playoff victory, and Jon Bush again showed he may be the most under-rated receiver in the state as he caught everything near him was unstoppable as a possession receiver. Brantley ran the ball well, passed it well and had some big special team plays that once again made it clear the Bulldogs are indeed a state title contender.

 The first round of the state high school football playoffs is usually pretty predictable since the top seeds play the bottom seeds in all seven classes. However, there are always upsets and that was the case again this week as the season ended for half the teams that were in action on Friday night. Here is a quick look back at the opening round in all classes.... * Class 7A – The teams in Region 1 made Region 2 look bad as it swept the teams from the coast as Auburn downed Fairhope 35-17, Central of Phenix City clobbered Mary Montgomery 58-7, Dothan outscored Foley 42-28 and Enterprise, which hasn't won a second round game since way back in 1993, defeated Baker 35-26. * Class 6A – Parker pulled the upset of the week with a 7-6 win over defending state champ Clay-Chalkville, while up in the capitol city Pike Road slipped past Spanish Fort 22-21 in a mild upset and St. Paul's shocked region champ Montgomery Carver 13-0. * Class 5A – Charles Henderson continued its amazing season with a 20-16 win over Williamson, while Carroll was left with sand in their shoes in a 42-0 loss to Gulf Shores and Headland saw an early 13-7 lead vanish in a 56-13 loss to top-ranked UMS-Wright. * Class 4A – Andalusia struggled in a 25-10 win over Jackson, while T.R. Miller ousted Montgomery Academy 41-13 and B.T. Washington kept its historic season alive and won its first playoff game ever with a wild 46-43 upset over Orange Beach. * Class 3A – Houston Academy saw its Cinderella season strike midnight in a 30-3 loss to Mobile Christian and Pike County shocked highly-ranked Excel 42-14, while the season came to an abrupt end for a pair of Covington County teams as Straughn saw a late lead vanish in a loss to Thomasville 20-9 and Opp was knocked off at home by W.S. Neal 27-13. * Class 2A – Arlinton lit up the scoreboard in a 61-22 whipping of Chickasaw and Wicksburg won on the road over J.U. Blacksher 34-7, while Cottonwood fought for all four quarters on the road in a 27-7 loss to defending state champ Clarke County, G.W. Long barely got past St. Luke's 19-16, Highland Home had to pull ahead late in a 29-21 win over Isabella, and Luverne lost a wild 36-35 shootout to Vincent. * Class 1A – The local region had its top two seeds win at home, but life wasn't as good on the road as Floral was flatted by Millry 55-7 and Georgiana was no match for Leroy and dropped a 47-12 decision.

 Back years ago Merle Haggard had a hit song on the country charts entitled 'Are the good times really over for good.' That song may soon make a comeback at radio stations around Tuscaloosa as the once powerful Alabama Crimson Tide continue their trip back to being just another SEC football team that always has a winning record, but is not a threat on the national scene. Last week's loss to LSU after a week off was simply more of the same for the Tide as its offense sputtered and the defense continued to surrender big plays and too many points for the suddenly 'not so explosive' offense to overcome. I am a lifelong Alabama fan and won't make excuses. However, unless Nick Saban cleans house on his coaching staff and brings in new ideas and excitement I see the Tide's decline continuing. The offense has the Heisman Trophy winner, but a retread offensive coordinator that was unemployed before Saban brought him aboard has proven to have no imagination and seems to just be a 'yes man' for Saban's old-school beliefs, while over on defense the Tide has been going backwards for years under a defensive coordinator that has been outcoached since his first day on the job as he simply does whatever the old ball coach tells him to do. Bear Bryant wasn't afraid to make changes, even late in his career, and it will be interesting to see if Saban will admit parts of the game have perhaps passed him by and the time is NOW for major changes. I for one am growing tired of his philosophical thoughts after games and remarks like "The players need to develop their value." It is still football! If not, this Bama fan will be happy to see him selling insurance on TV with Coach Prime and let Lane Kiffin or Dabo Swinney come to T-town and begin the rebuilding process.

As for the folks over at Auburn, the powers to be on the plains may need to sit back and consider putting the name Carnell Williams in the list of potential new head coaches. Whether they believe it or not, Auburn right now is not the best job in the country, despite its generous buyout policy, and I think many coaches would simply go for the money and not really embrace the pride and history of the program. I know the Tigers lost in overtime in Coach Williams debut last weekend, but they rallied from a 24-3

In second round battle

Elba looks to dethrone 1A champs

The top-ranked Elba Tigers will be looking to dethrone the kings of Class 1A Friday night, Nov. 11, when they host the defending state champion and ninth-ranked Sweet Water Bulldogs, in second round playoff action at Tiger Stadium.

The playoff match-up will be a meeting of prep football powers as the Tigers boast seven state titles and 21 region championships, while the Bulldogs have claimed 11 state titles and 27 region crowns.

"In Class 1A all you have to say is Sweet Water and everyone knows about the tradition and rich history of the program," stated Elba Tiger head coach Marc Sieving. "They have won two state championships in the past five years and are the defending state champs. So, you know they are coming here expecting to win and move on in the playoffs. We know the challenge ahead of us and are looking forward to it, because we also expect to win and move on."

Elba will bring an 11-0 record into the second round clash and has scored an average of 42.8 points a game while allowing 13.6 points a game, while Sweet Water will enter the game with a 7-2 record and has averaged 36.7 points a game and allowed 10.9 points a game.

The Tigers own a 2-0 all-time record against the Bulldogs, with the most recent win being a 46-14 playoff win in 2015, and are 13-7 in second round contests, while the Bulldogs are 21-7 in second round action.

deficit to grab the lead late and in doing so did show pride and determination. Auburn isn't as far away from being a really good football team as many fans think, and just needs to get the right man for the job, not the biggest name on the market, and despite being a grown man that still likes to be called by a high school nickname I think Williams at this time may be the man for the job.

The Troy Trojans continued their winning ways last week with a key conference win over Louisiana and while they may be outsized by most teams in the conference, they no doubt play with more enthusiasm and have the biggest hearts of any team in the state. I am not saying the Trojans are ready to take on the state's two SEC teams, but when it comes to playing hard and playing to win this team takes a backseat to no one. The Trojans have proven that with the right coach a team doesn't have to be filled with five stars and rental players from the portal to be successful. This team is fun to watch, fun to cheer for and is only a few miles up the road. Area fans need to take another look at Troy University before they spend all their money going to games across the state that have changed football from a sport into a business.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by a little early over the weekend and was talking about the four games on the schedule in Class 1A in second round action. The local guesspert declared any of the games could be a 'state title' match-up that fans would want to see, and said that after his 24-5 record last week is keeping his fingers crossed in some real toss-ups. Here goes....

ELBA VS. SWEET WATER

The Pea River felines will be back on the green turf at Mack Wood Field again this week and will no doubt be looking for some places to ambush a pack of dogs that are heading their way from down in the west part of the state. The dogs have been hard to stop all season long and have no plans to let their trip to the state finals end in the hole behind Elba High. It's heads!

ELBA 37 SWEET WATER 35

BRANTLEY VS. LINDEN

The bulldogs from up across the creek will pack up for a weekend trip across the state looking to bring home a win and keep their title hunt alive, but it won't be easy since their opponents have a true homefield advantage and in recent years have sent the dogs back home packing. This is another game that has all the makings of a four quarter war. It's heads, again!

make sure we do our jobs." "It's not supposed to be easy in the playoffs and there will be nothing easy about this week's game," said Sieving. "We need to have everybody healthy and ready for a physical game." When asked about last week's 42-20 win over Southern Choctaw, Coach Sieving said, "We made some mistakes that hurt us, but we were a little short-handed due to injuries and it showed at times. JT Coleman and Kyle Smith are both seniors and both had really good games, both as players and as leaders. We made too many penalties and had two flags that nullified touchdowns, and we can't do that and win. It was a physical game against a physical team. We were happy to get the win and move on."

The Elba Tigers scored on their first four offensive series to take command and never looked back to claim a 42-20 win over the Southern Choctaw Indians, in the opening round of the Class 1A playoffs, Friday night at Tiger Stadium.

Elba received the opening kickoff and promptly marched 58 yards in six running plays to grab an early lead. JT Coleman rushed for 48 yards on four carries to lead the Tigers downfield, while Brayden Johnson scored the touchdown on a 14-yard run. Alex Wisecup kicked the extra-point and with 8:54 left in the first quarter Elba was already on top 7-0.

Southern Choctaw began its initial possession at its own 38-yardline and showed it had come to play as the Indians went 62 yards in eight plays to get on the scoreboard. Elba was flagged for 20 yards in penalties that aided the scoring drive, while Dontae Causey scored the Indian touchdown on a 14-yard gallop. A two-point pass missed its target, but with 4:34 left in the quarter Elba's lead had been cut to 7-6.

Elba began its second possession of the half near midfield and this time went 52 yards in five plays to extend its lead. Alvin Henderson rushed for 38 yards on two carries and scored the Tiger touchdown on a 25-yard scamper, and after Wisecup booted the extra-point the Tigers lead was up to 14-6 with 1:46 left in the first quarter.

Elba regained possession at its own 45-yardline after an Indians punt and this time needed six plays to cover the distance to the endzone. Alvin Henderson rushed for 56 yards on five carries to lead the Tigers down the field and capped the drive with a 15-yard scoring jaunt. Wisecup added the extra-point and with 9:30 left in the second quarter the Tigers lead was up to 21-7.

Elba's next possession began at the Southern Choctaw 20-yardline after a blocked punt, and after a penalty on first down, Alvin Henderson took a direct snap and rammed 25 yards for a score. Alex Wisecup's extra-point was successful as the Tigers lead grew to 28-6 with 6:46 still left in the quarter.

Elba lost a fumble on its next possession at the Southern Choctaw 11-yardline to kill a scoring threat and later had a 31-yard touchdown run by Henderson wiped off by a penalty flag as the Tigers carried the 28-6 lead in at the half.

Elba lost a fumble at its own 31-yardline on its initial possession of the second half as the Tigers continued to be bitten by their own mistakes. However, the Tigers did regain possession at their own 23-yardline after a defensive stand, and went 77 yards in eight plays to regain command. A 36-yard run by JT Coleman got the drive off to a fast start, and Coleman added a 23-yard dash on a key fourth down play to keep the long scoring drive alive, while Alvin Henderson capped the drive with a 2-yard touchdown run. Wisecup's extra-point was true as Elba's lead went to 35-6 with 3:37 remaining in the quarter.

Elba failed to cash in a turnover after a pass interception by Cameron Gray at the Tigers 30-yardline on the Indians' ensuing possession, but Southern Choctaw did take advantage of a Tiger turnover early in the fourth quarter and went 61 yards in 11 plays to get back into the endzone.

Javon Sikes capped the march with a 14-yard scoring run up the middle, and while a two-point pass failed to add points, Elba's lead stood at 35-12 with 5:59 left on the clock.

Elba added a touchdown on a winding 52-yard run by JT Coleman with 5:33 left on the clock and Alex Wisecup made it six-for-six on extra-point attempts to push the Tigers lead to 42-12, while Southern Choctaw added a score with 1:36 remaining on a 27-yard run by Channing Hill and Keontavious McGrew ran in the two-point conversion, and at the final horn the Tigers were moving on to round two with the 42-20 win.

Alvin Henderson rushed for 170 yards and 4 touchdowns on 18 carries and completed a halfback pass for 42 yards to spark the Elba offense, while JT Coleman rushed for 185 yards and one td on 10 carries and pulled in two passes for 59 yards.

Channing Hill rushed for 121 yards and one td to lead the Indians, while Dontae Causey rushed for 40 yards and one td on 15 carries and completed 7 of 11 passes, with one interception, for 62 yards.

The Brantley Bulldogs jumped out to a 26-0 second quarter lead and coasted in with an impressive 39-3 win over the Choctaw County Tigers, Friday night in the first round of the Class 1A playoffs, at David Lowery Stadium, in Brantley.

Brantley received the opening kickoff and wasted little time taking the lead for good as the Bulldogs marched 88 yards in six plays to reach the endzone. Kedrick Brown rushed for 65 yards on four carries to lead the Bulldogs downfield and capped the long scoring drive with a 13-yard scamper, and while the extra-point try failed, Brantley was on top 6-0 with 9:04 left in the first quarter.

Brantley turned the ball over on its next series, but regained possession at its own 36-yardline after a Tiger punt and this time went 64 yards in eight plays to extend its lead. Jayden Parks completed five of five passes for 56 yards to spark the scoring march and connected with Jon Bush on three tosses for 41 yards, including a 16-yard touchdown toss on a leaping catch in the endzone. Parks added the extra-point, and with 11:04 left in the second quarter the Bulldogs were on top 13-0.

Brantley began its next possession at the Choctaw County 28-yardline after a punt was partially blocked by a Tiger lineman, and the Bulldogs took advantage of the short field to quickly extend its lead. The score came on a 28-yard run up the left side by Robert Shine, and Parks' extra-point try was successful as Brantley's lead grew to 20-0 with 8:41 remaining in the quarter.

The Bulldogs began their next possession at their own 29-yardline after a defensive stand needed only four plays to cover the 71 yards to the endzone. A 55-yard pass from Jayden

Parks to Jordan Parks was a key play in the long scoring drive, while the score came on a 13-yard touchdown toss to Jon Bush in the corner of the endzone. The extra-point try failed. However, with 2:48 left in the half Brantley was in command with a 26-0 lead.

Choctaw County recovered a Bulldog bobble at the Brantley 34-yardline late in the half and got on the scoreboard with 30-seconds left on the clock on a 26-yard field goal by Arda Bas, as at the half the teams went in with the Bulldogs owning a 26-3 advantage.

Brantley lost a fumble on its initial possession of the third quarter and was forced to punt on its second possession, but did come back to life on the Tigers third offensive series when Jr. Bogen broke through to block a punt that was recovered in the endzone by Robert Shine for a Bulldog touchdown. The extra-point try failed, but with 1:53 left in the quarter Brantley's lead had grown to 32-3.

Brantley's Elijah McGee recovered a Tiger fumble at the Choctaw County 2-yardline on the Tigers ensuing possession, and from there it took the 'Dogs only one play to cash in the short field as Kedrick Brown bulled over from two yards out. Parks added the extra-point as Brantley upped its lead to 39-3 and sealed the deal on the Bulldogs 600th win and a trip to the second round of the playoffs.

Kedrick Brown rushed for 93 yards and two touchdowns on nine carries to lead Brantley on the ground, while Robert Shine added 42 yards and one td on five carries and also recovered a fumble for a score. Jayden Parks completed 11 of 14 passes for 150 yards and two touchdowns, with Jon Bush pulling in eight passes for 80 yards and two scores.

Darryl Ruffin rushed for 70 yards on nine carries and Ronnie James added 32 yards on eight carries to lead the Tigers.
